Dear Sirs:

My name is Marion A. French. I am an attorney practicing law in the Alexandria community and I have been doing so for the past 36 years. Just recently I was appointed as a board member of the Alexandria Civil Service Commission. I was sworn in on November 18, 2015. I was nominated by the Alexandria Bar Association to serve in this capacity. As you are aware, the Alexandria Civil Service Commission is a board created by state statute. It is a municipal board.

The concern and question that I have is whether I, as an attorney, am able to serve on this board even though I have in the past and will continue to in the future to represent any number of clients who work for the City of Alexandria. I maintain a general practice and I have occasion to do a number of things for city employees from time to time, including but not limited to divorces, loan closings, child support matters, wills, succession work, adoptions, etc. What I would like for the board to advise is if this creates an ethics problem for me of any nature. If so, I will readily resign my membership on the board. Please advise. Thanks.

Yours truly,

Marion A. French
